CONDITIONS OF BOOKING

Payment: 1. No booking can be regarded as confirmed until the completed booking form and payment have been returned to us.

Cancellation: 2. In the event of cancellation of the booking, every effort will be made to fill the places, and if successful, the fees will be returned. If unsuccessful, any cancellations after monies have been paid will be charged as follows:

Prior to six weeks of commencement date: Deposit

4-6 weeks of commencement date: 70% of total sum

Less than 4 weeks of commencement date: No refund

The date of cancellation is the date of the receipt of WRITTEN cancellation at Mylor Sailing School's office.

Cancellation: 3. We reserve the right to cancel any of our courses due to operational reasons. In this event all fees will be refunded unless alternative dates are acceptable.

Adverse weather: 4. We can accept no responsibility for the effect that weather conditions may have on our programme. In the event of severe weather forcing cancellation for safety reasons you will be given the option of alternative dates subject to availability.

The decision whether or not to sail is always the responsibility of the Senior Instructor on duty at the time.

Misbehaviour: 5. Anyone who, in the opinion of the Senior Instructor, is unfit for any activity, or who behaves in such a way likely to cause danger, or spoil the enjoyment of other members of any group, may be excluded from taking part.

Lost property: 6. We remind everyone to take all their possessions home with them. We will keep lost property until the end of the season, but regret that we cannot forward items by post.

Insurance: 7. Our boats and staff are covered by a public liability insurance policy. We accept no liability for personal accident, or loss of your property.

For any queries with these terms and conditions of booking please contact Tracey on the above email address. We would rather have happy sailors and happy customers and to see you again!
