COURSES

Courses will be set in the estuary and details will be given at the brief. They will start and finish with an upwind leg and incorporate either a starboard or port hand course of a triangle and windward leeward for asymmetric boats. Competitors are not permitted to pass through the start/finish line unless they are starting or finishing. Therefore once started, you must avoid going through this line unless you are finishing.

MARKS

Course marks will be large orange buoys.

The starting and finishing marks will be the back mast on the race committee vessel, and an orange buoy displaying a white flag.

THE FINISH

The finishing line will be between the back mast on the race committee vessel and the orange buoy with white flag.

After the first boat has finished, the race committee may finish other boats at any mark of the course.

PROTESTS & REQUESTS FOR REDRESS

All protests must be reported to the race officer on the committee boat as soon as possible before you come ashore, late protests will not be counted.

SCORING

The low points scoring system of RRS Appendix A will be used.

All 3 races count. No discards

SAFETY SYSTEM

All competitors that go on the water, if not completing the race for some reason, must inform the shorebased person (probably Tracey Boyne) immediately. Buoyancy aids must be worn at all times when afloat.

PRIZES

The Trophies will be awarded to the winner of each event in each class.

An overall School Trophy from Mylor Sailing School will be awarded.

The scoring for this will be as follows:

1st x 4 boats results (not all from the same class).

There will be other trophies awarded for the winner of each class that have been donated by various supporters and also medals will be awarded for the 2nd and 3rd places in each class. Cornwall Sports Partnership are also providing all of the medals.
